SUICIDS.—A soldier named Frank Kimberly, longing to the 1871h New York regiment, was in the B. Conway's restairant, near the Ratirosa sport, about 6% o'clock on Saturday evening, and rand to have something heavily preying on bit and. His despondent mice and silent demensity second to hay's something heavily proying on his mind. His despondent mice and tilen desweatly, attracted as the time, the attention of many percessing in the restaltrant. About ap hour attracted as the time, the attention of many percessing in the restaltrant. About ap hour attracted on the commons nearly and about fifty yards from the surrounding buildings. Officer Barkley of the Eighth, precinct, took the body of the man in charge and concept it to the station house. An isquest was held by Coroner Woodward. The evidence to the following effect was produced by the Sxamining Surgeon: "That the declared, Frank Kimberly, came to his death by a pistol ball inred from a revolver in his own hands, the ball extering between the third and fourth ribs into the heart, and causing instant death." The coroner's tury further believed that the deceased committed suictive whilst laboring under temporary insantly or derangement of mind. A revolver worth $15 and a pocket-book containing $11 ware found on his preson. Simberly and three others of his registrant were rece tip field off, and were intering his person. Simberly and three others of his regi-ment were been tily thid off, and were lottlering about the city, away from their company, spending their money. Rimberly leard that he would be court-martialed for describin, and some persons think that it was probably the cause of his in-centry.

LITERARY THEVES.—Saturday night, two oldiers, who were very much intoxicated, and who gave their names as A. L. Oakley and Hiran d, went into the bookstore of Mesers. Philomon. While Ballard was looking around a Solomon. While Ballard was looking around, one of the cierks observed Cakier onneed a book under his sont. He went up to him and told him to put it back. The man took the book out and laid it down, then tursed on the cierk and struck him. A policeman was called, who arrested both of the men and conveyed them to the Guardhouse, where this morning they sent for Mr. Solomon and expressed themselves very sorry for what they had done and hegged him not to proceedte them. Mr. Solomon told them from representations that had been made to him by some of their friends, he would not do so, but if was in the hands of Capi.

ASSAULT ON A SALOON KEEPER.—Two solders went tast night to a house near the Long Bridge kept by a man named Fearcon, and after getting liquor, proceeded to set in a very disorder; manner, stoning his house and very nearly maining some of his children. A licutenant of the partie with a squad of men happened to be passing, and arrested the ricters, as also the innates of the house. This morning Mr. Fearcon was brought before Justice Ferguson, at the Guserhouse, on the charge of selling thour to the soldiers, and its these made a charge against them for stoning his house. The Justice had the soldiers confined and allowed Fearcon to go on bail for his appearance to-morrow, when they will all have a further hearing.

NEGRO STRAUER ARRESTED.—James Pitzpat NEORO ETTALER AIRRETED.—James Fliggat-rick, a former county constable of this city, was arrested by one of Capt. Johnson's detectives, on the charge of negro steading. It seems that he had taken a regro trem this city to Ballimore, and tried to sall him; but the milliary authorities took him from him. He tilen came on here, and when I sued had some segroes in custody. On his person was found a warrant for the arrest of two negroes, but neither description answered to those that he had in charge. He was committed to the Guari-house by Captain Todd, to be held until further orders.

BATHINO.—Nine Iffah boys were arrested for sathing in Tiber Creek, between First and Second streets weet, and S and C streets north. They were laken to the Statuce-house and locked up for three hours. Their names are I John Fitzgerald, Thos. Farral, Daniel McCarthy, Jeremish Donohue, Fairick McManus, Jao. McCarthy, Michael Fitzgerald, Andrew Donahue and Cornelius Healy. The complainant was J. S. Bister. We hope these boys, if caught again in the same set, will be more severely dealt with. It seems that they make it a custom to bathe in the Tiber, and sometimes on Funday—making it extremely disagreeable for ladies to go to the chorches in the vicinity.

Homneny.—Hugh McLaughlin, a soldier, was arrested last night, by a policeman, charged by Edward Hughes with having stolen a watch and fitteen dollars from him. McL. was taken to the Guardhouse, where, this morning, Hughes appeared against him. He fold Lieut. Cooper that he had no dealre to procecute the soldier if he rould get his property. The money and watch laving been found on the person of McLaughlin, it was restored, and he sent to Forest Hall to be sken from thence to his regiment.

SMALL POX PATERY.—Yesterday Officer and Brewer found a nerro man on Nintl street near Feaneylvania avenue, who was versick with the small pox. They conveyed his across to the Market Space and Brewer proceede to the Medical Director's office, and reported the case. An ambulance was brought and the negretaken to the small pox hospital.

CASE OF DROWNING.—A boy named Edward Kershaw was drowned last Saturday, about 10 a.m., at Blagden's wharf, which is situated at the end of Third street east. His body was not found ill yesterday morning, about 10.20 oblicat, when in inquest was held by Coroner Woodward. A cordict was rendered, showing that he was struck by a boy named Brown, causing him to fall-overnourd and drown.

BAD CONDUCT OF OFFICERS.—Complaints or BAD CONDUCT OF OFFICERS.—Complaints are frequently made of army officers who ride acound the city in open carriages, and who make it their business to insult respectable ladies passing along the streets. We are satisfied that it is only neces-sary to call the attention of the proper officers of the Government to this matter, and these gentle-men (I) will be duly attended to.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of R. Stratton
Bradford, a private in First District Volunteers—
Capit. Clark company—who was droward by falling overboard from a vessel lying at the wharf at Alexandria, has been recovered.
